Banana tree plants. Many things. Grandma picks bananas to sell from her.

Deepa likes to visit her Grandma. Grandma tells her,

Deepa asks, “How do you make the bananas yellow?”
Grandma says, “It is my secret.”
Grandma says, “Hush, child. Do not ask too much.”
I have to sell the bananas,” Grandma tells her. “The bananas are still green.

Deepa asks, “Can I have a banana?”

The next day, Grandma tells Deepa, “Go get my stick so I can get up.”

The stick is next to the tub of bananas.
Deepa smells the bananas, so she looks in the tub. She has a plan.

Deepa and the hen get bananas from the tub. They run past Grandma. Grandma cannot see them.
Deepa and her hen sit. Deepa bit the banana.

Deepa fed the hen a banana, too.

Deepa says, “Oh no! Grandma has no bananas to sell.”

Deepa is upset. The hen is sad.
Deepa has a plan to help.
What can Deepa do?
Mom, Dad, and Grandma are mad.

Deepa can help Grandma pick more green bananas. The hen can help Grandma, too!
