

Quiz: Reading Comprehension

Unit 4. Saving Red Panda Cubs Story

Date: ____/____/____

Name: _____

Read the questions and answer choices and choose the correct answer!

1. How does the author use the word dwelling in the story?

- A. to mean the branches of trees
- B. to mean a place where animals live
- C. to mean flying over a forest

2. What is the problem in the story?

- A. The Red pandas may lose their home in the tree.
- B. The Red pandas are hard to find in the thick bushes.
- C. The students can't coax the man to stop chopping the tree.

3. Which of these details is important to Tim and Deepa's plan to save the Red panda cubs?

- A. They see the mother Red panda approach the nest filled with eggs.
- B. They think about how the Red panda is like a cat.
- C. They explain to the man about the Red pandas that live in the tree.

4. The text says, "The life of the Red panda family is at stake." What does this mean?

- A. The Mom Red panda need to find food for her cubs.
- B. The Red panda cubs are in danger and may not survive.
- C. The man with an ax was chopping down all the trees.

5. What do you think the author's message is in this story?

- A. People have to help protect animals in their habitats.
- B. Red pandas take care of their cubs.
- C. The forest is not the best place for animals to live.

6. How does the author use the word coax in the story?

- A. to mean talking to someone into doing something
- B. to mean racing to do something fast
- C. to mean deciding on a plan