

Quiz: Reading Comprehension

Grandma's Bananas Story

Date: ____/____/____

Name: _____

Read the questions and answer choices
and choose the correct answer!

1. What did the character Deepa want?

- A. She wanted to help Grandma pick bananas.
- B. She wanted to know Grandma's secret to make the bananas ripen.
- C. She wanted to know how many bananas she could eat.

2. How does the author use the word ripe in the story?

- A. to describe bananas that are not ready to sell
- B. to describe bananas before they are picked
- C. to describe bananas that are yellow

3. Which detail in the story supports the story message that you should think about how what you do can make a problem for others?

- A. Deepa peeks under the leaves and sees the bananas.
- B. Deepa sneaks five of the bananas from the huge tub.
- C. Deepa realizes that Grandma needs more bananas to sell at the market.

4. Which word is best to use when you want to tell that a person is begging for something?

- A. gaze
- B. plead
- C. weep

5. What is a problem a character faces in the story, Grandma's Ripe Bananas?

- A. Deepa wants to know a secret that Grandma does not want to tell.
- B. Deepa is hungry and wants to eat the ripe bananas at the market.
- C. Deepa can't find a place to hide to eat the bananas.

6. What lesson can we learn from the character, Deepa?

- A. If you eat too many ripe bananas, you will feel sick.
- B. If you make a mistake, you can admit it and make amends.
- C. If you eat green bananas, you will get tummy pain.